

Photographic entries for the 2007 Brentford Oscars

The theme for the 2007 Brentford Oscars is exhilaration. The reason that we decided upon this theme is that we are looking for something that can be widely interpreted into something original and personal to the entrants.

The categories for the photoprahic entries are as follows,

- Yr 7-9
- Yr 10 & 11
- Yr 12 & 13
- Adult and community
- Teachers

The judging categories for each group are:

Best Photograph

This will examine the composition, focus and how well your entry fits the theme.

Most Original Photograph overall

Have you got an eye for a good picture? This category rewards entrants with a particularly interesting or original approach to deciding what to put in the frame. All of those short listed will automatically be entered for this category.

Best use of digital technology overall

This will assess the best use of technology to enhance images. All photographs short-listed will automatically be entered for this category.

Submitting Your Photographs

- ✓ Your entry may consist of either:
Up to 2 12"x16" (30 x 40cm) prints or
Up to 4 10"x8" (25cm x 20cm) prints

- ✓ Your entry must be individual and mounted on A1 Card/Paper

- ✓ Your entry must be submitted with your name, school and year group clearly displayed on the front, bottom right hand corner.

- ✓ Your entry must be submitted with a brief paragraph explaining how it satisfies the theme of 'Exhilaration'. This should be no longer than 50 words.

- ✓ Your entry must be no more than 4 photographs per entry

- ✓ If your entry does not comply with these regulations your entry will be marked down accordingly, and may not make the shortlist.
